First Reading (Micah 6:6-8)

With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high?

Shall I come before God with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

God has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

—Micah 6:6-8

Presenters:

Stephen Sizer is a pastor, theologian, and one of if not the foremost voice on the topic of Christian Zionism.

He is also the director of the Institute for the Study of Christian Zionism (ISCZ), a multidimensional research institute being launched in the Summer 2024. The ISCZ will promote rigorous analysis, documentation, research and advocacy to expose, challenge, and confront the heresy of Christian Zionism. It aspires to become the primary website portal for the study, critique and response to Christian Zionism.

Addie Domske is a social worker and theologian. After spending the summer of 2013 in the Holy Land, she returned committed to Palestinian human rights and indigenous land sovereignty in the U.S. She has returned multiple times to Palestine, most recently in February 2024, to stay connected with the reality on the ground.

Addie serves on the steering committee of the Israel/Palestine Mission Network of the PC(USA). She is co-chair of the Hosanna Preaching Project and has served on the theological committee for Friends of Sabeel North America (FOSNA).
